Stiff onion price keeps consumers crying for help

With the skyrocketing price of onions taking a toll on consumers, various government functionaries are dipping their hands into the crisis in a bid to address the problem.

The Office of the Ombudsman recently announced it is investigating the issue, while the Senate recently conducted an inquiry into the problem. Progressive congressmen in the House of Representatives filed a resolution calling for an investigation.

Now comes the Department of Trade and Industry which announced that it will convene the National Price Coordinating Council to craft recommendations to tackle the onion supply woes.

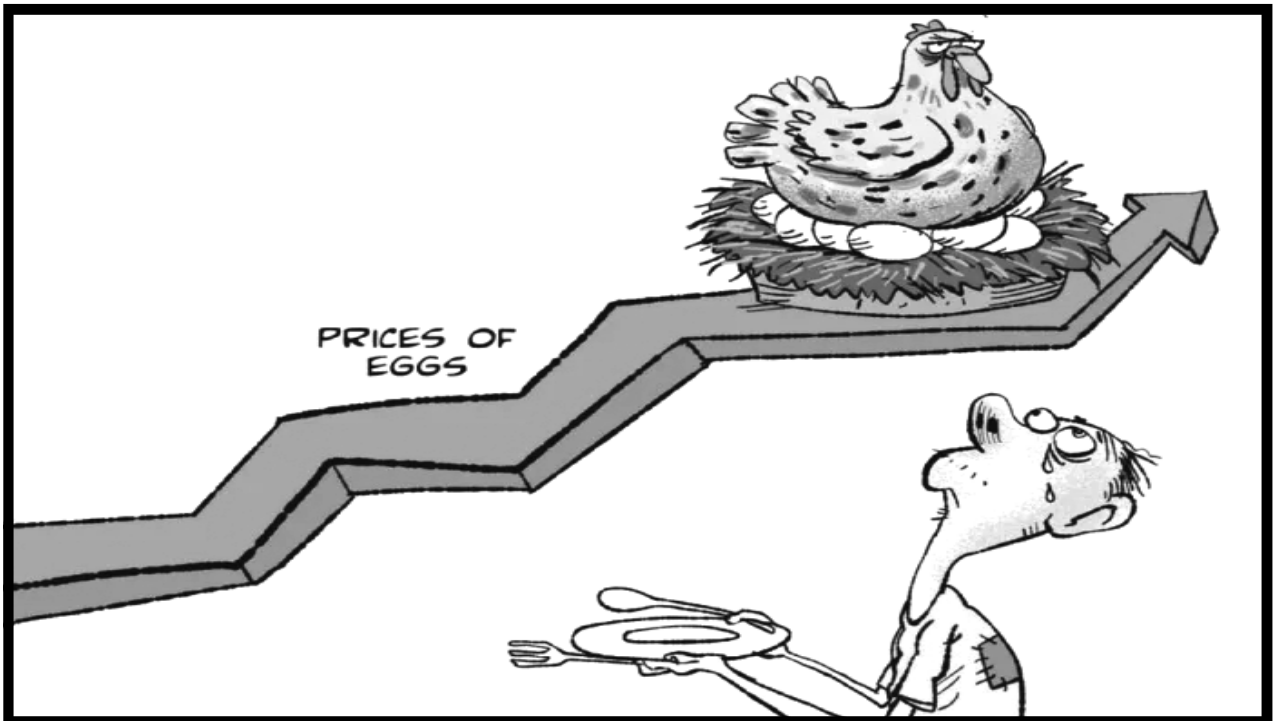

The move of these agencies may be a bit late as onion prices are slowly tapering off, though is still very high, after hitting as high as ₱800 a kilo last month. Nevertheless, it is a welcome development as there is an urgent need to address the current crisis and find ways to prevent it from recurring.

These agencies, while acting separately, should get to the bottom of the problem — find out its root cause and elicit recommendations on how to come up with solutions to address the problem.

So, what triggered the problem? Everybody knows there was a low supply of onions, particularly during the Christmas season when demand was high. In the law on supply and demand in economics, price surges when supply is low. And this came into play when the price of onions skyrocketed due to limited supply.

As early as August last year, the Department of Agriculture (DA) already warned of dwindling supply of onions. A senior official even bared that the DA suspects a syndicate is hoarding onions, causing the price to soar.

Those developments should have served as a warning to the DA of the portent of things to come. It should have immediately buckled down to work and find out if a real shortage is coming or it is a case of hoarding to manipulate prices during the Christmas season when demand was high.

Despite the knowledge of dwindling supply, it now appears the DA failed to come up with a contingency plan to address the issue.

No doubt, senators took turns in blaming the DA for the crisis.

"The price of onions had taken us on this mad rollercoaster ride during the last few months. It is apparent that there is an abject lack of planning [on the part of DA], therefore," Sen. Imee Marcos, who initiated the Senate investigation, told DA officials present at the inquiry.

A timely and well-projected minimal importation during the off season could have averted the shortage, she added.

Former Agriculture secretary William Dar joined senators in blaming the DA for lack of planning.

"They knew there was a deficiency... but why did they not proceed [with the importation]?" Dar said in a recent TV interview.

After all these investigations and inquiries, what is important is for all stakeholders to buckle down to work and come up with the right solution.

What is urgently needed now is a short-term solution to stabilize the price of onion and immediately address the cries of suffering consumers. Beyond this, a long-term policy must be crafted to keep the problem from recurring — steady onion supply, punitive measures against hoarders and even smugglers, support for local farmers, and other measures that will benefit the public.

Listen to the cries of consumers.

HIGH BLOOD

ni Lolo ELI
TAPARAN

SINCE he assumed office as Imus City mayor, Alex Lacson Advincula, I have been receiving good and likewise "bad admiration" of his leadership style from a number of friends and media colleagues.

I can not say, Mayor AA is a close friend of mine as what other people believed.

Sa mga politikong Caviteño, ilan ang talagang naging mas malapit ako: Gov. Juanito R. 'Johnny' Remulla Sr. (+), Gov. Erineo S. Maliksi (+), Dasmariñas Mayor/Congressman Elpidio 'Pido' Barzaga Jr. and Imus City Mayor Emmanuel L. Maliksi and former Imus City Vice Mayor Mandy Ilano.

At ang anak-anakan nating si former Vice Gov. Jose Lorenzo 'Jolo' B. Revilla 3rd now District 2 congressman.

Si Kabayang Bong Revilla ay dating enemy ko, pero friends na kami, tama po ba, Congw. Ate Lani?

Siyempre, ang yumaong Rosario Mayor Jose 'Nonong' Ricafrente na ang turingan namin ay di lang magkaibigan kungdi "brothers-in-the-faith."

I was Boss Ayong "amuyong and errand boy" since 1979 when Gov. Johnny appointed me as provincial information officer and "trouble shooter" in media.

In 1983, I resigned sa kapitolyo at natrabaho uli bilang editor ng mga magazine at daily newspaper, but I continued to be Boss Wapog and Boss Ayong "errand boy" and media consultant.

2005: Boss Ayong told me: "Bumalik ka sa Cavite, tulungan mo si Manny (ELM) sa Imus."

Nag-resigned ako as editor-in-chief sa dalawang jaryo na hawak ko noon at nagtrabaho bilang unang information officer ng Imus until my retirement in 2012: dapat ay 2011, pero ini-extend pa ng isang taon ang panunungkulan ko kaya nagretiro ako sa edad na 66.

In 2013, freelance editor-at-large ako ng isang daily newspaper at ng ilang weekly paper sa Cavite nang ipatawag uli ako ni Boss Ayong, sabi niya: "Tatakbong kongressman si Alex (AA) tulungan mo."

Dahil boss ko siya, sumunod ako at ipinakilala sa akin ni Gov. Ayong si Tatay Tasyo na ama ni AA.

Sa kainitan ng kampanya, kinausap ako ni Boss Ayong at ni Tatay Tasyo kasi isang kandidatong kongresista ang panay ang upak kay AA, at ano raw damage control ang dapat gawin para makontra ang black propaganda ng kalaban.

Matapos kong makita ang mga upak laban kay AA, sinabi ko, 'wag nang ituloy ang balak na maglabas ng tabloid para sagutin ang mga paninira.

Mas mabuti, maglabas na lang ng sticker, ng open letter na sagot sa mga putik na ibinabato laban kay Bokal AA: sabi ko, sayang lang ang daan libong pisong magagastos sa paghahanda ng editorial content at pag-iimprenta at pamamahagi ng diyaryo para kontrahin ang black propaganda ng kalaban.

Tumulong ako sa paghahanda sa content ng sticker, at iba pang campaign materials, and the rest is history.

In 12 years na kongresista si Mayor AA. four times lang kaming nagkita, pinakahuli ay noong 2019, sa isang miting sa Imus Sports Center, aniya: "Usap kayo ni si Jeff (Purissima), sumama ka na sa amin."

Na hindi nangyari: I have to fly to Vancouver, kasi sabi ng anak ko, kailangan nang isalang ako sa prostate cancer surgery na matapos ang operasyon ko, natengga ako rito, gawa ng Covid-19 pandemic.

Habang nagpapagaling, patuloy pa rin sa pagsusulat, pagtatrabaho bilang editorial consultant sa ilang national daily at Cavite weekly paper.

Latest, dahil patuloy ang paggaling ko, pinayagan ako ng tatlo kong doktor na magbakasyon at sa Hulyo, uuwi ako sa atin.

Sa mga unang linggo, buwan ni Mayor AA sa new Imus City Government Center -- na napakaganda raw, marami akong natatanggap na message.

Sobrang higit daw sa city hall, bawat floor may CCTV; ilang department head at empleyado ang inilagay sa "naval fleet" at palutang-lutang sa trabaho; may nag-resign kasi, nakatunganga lang sa Mayor's extension office; may ilang city officials daw ang pinaimbestigahan, balak daw kasuhan, at iba pang balita na positibo at negatibo, depende sa political leanings ng kausap ko.

Alam ko, positibo man o negatibo, 'yung nagme-message sa akin ay nagmamalasakit lamang at nais na magkaroon ng maayos na pamamahala sa city hall, ay iyon sa paniniwala ko, ang nais na gawin ng bagong alkalde.

Sabi ko na lang, ganyan talaga ang politika sa atin: Bago'ng Hari, bago rin ang ugali.

I know, some of my friends are dismayed why I am not writing about those "negative happenings" sa Imus City government, and said: "Nandito ako sa Vancouver. I have no personal knowledge sa sinasabi nila sa akin, na sa tingin ko ay maaaring totoo nga.

Sabi pa ng mga kaibigan natin, puro PR ang naisusulat sa mga Cavite newspaper na ako ang copywriter cum editorial consultant.

Apologist daw ako ng mga politiko sa Imus at ibang Cavite politicians.

But as an old and retired journalist, at aged 76, and from my long experience as editor and media consultant, I should lean on evidence, not unsupported conjecture and long-held prejudice.

Hard evidence ang kailangan kasi, pag wala nito, sayang lang ang hirap, ang pagod.

Some friends accused me of not being supportive enough for their "cause."

Yes, I must admit, in my heart, marami sa sinasabi nila ay totoo ngang nangyayari. Sa tagal ko sa politika, sa pamamahayag at bilang dating kawani ng gobyerno, naging saksi ako sa mga katiwalian -- na ipinaglaban ko at naging dahilan ng maraming kasong libelo, harassment at iba pang panggigipit, banta sa buhay ko at kapamilya na ang lahat ay nalampasan ko.

Sabi ko sa aking mga friends, may tradisyong sinusunod kami sa media: Binibigyan namin ng one year honeymoon period ang bagong upong administrasyon, at patuloy lang kaming magmamamasid, magbabantay at susuportahan sa magaganda nilang programa at proyekto.

Kung sa palagay ay may mali, katiwalian: kailangan ay dokumento, ebidensiya at mga taong handang humarap sa husgado at susuporta kami.

Handa kaming tumulong para sa maayos, mapagkakatiwalaan at mabuting pamamahala sa bayan.

Sa ngayon, cheers muna tayo kay Mayor AA, kay Vice Mayor Saki at sa Sanggunian members at sa mga opisyal at kawani ng pamahalaang lungsod ng Imus.

Mapapansin, sa pahayagang ito ang patuloy na suporta namin sa magaganda at mapakikinabangang programa ng ating Cavite LGUs.

Magbabantay kami: pagkat 'yan ang tungkulin at pananagutan namin.

Much thanks po sa mga nagme-message sa akin tungkol sa iba-ibang pangyayari sa atin sa Cavite: Mabuhay po kayo. GOD bless po.!

mabuksan ito sa motorista, aabot lamang sa 20 minuto ang biyahe mula sa nabanggit na interchange patungo sa Tagaytay, Cavite, ang second summer capital ng bansa, via Aguinaldo Highway.

Ayon sa MPCALA, puspunan ang pagtutok ng kanilang government partner na Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) sa pagresolba sa isyu ng right-of-way.

"While we work closely with our grantor, DPWH to fast-track delivery of right-of-way, especially in the critical area in Silang, we continue to do construction work on areas where right of way has already been granted so as not to further delay the project," ani MPCALA President Mr. Raul Ignacio.

Sa ngayon, umabot na sa 65% ang construction progress ng Subsection 4 o ang Silang (Aguinaldo) Interchange habang nasa 54% naman sa buong CALAX project. Ang bagong interchange ay kukonekta sa Aguinaldo Highway sa Silang, Cavite, at makatutulong para ma decongest ang mga local roads at highways sa probinsya ng Cavite at Laguna.

Ang CALAX ay hahaba ng 45-kilometers at durugtong sa CAVITEX. Sa kasalukuyan, ang operating segments nito ay nagsisimula sa Mamplasan sa Binan, at may interchanges sa Laguna Technopark, Laguna Boulevard, Santa Rosa-Tagaytay Road, at Silang East.

Ang MPCALA Holdings Inc. ay isang subsidiary ng Metro Pacific Tollways Corporation (MPTC), ang toll road development arm ng Metro Pacific Investments Corporation (MPIC). Ang MPTC ang pinaka malaking toll road developer at operator sa bansa. Bukod sa CALAX at CAVITEX, hawak rin nito ang concession rights sa North Luzon Expressway (NLEX), NLEX Connector Road, Subic-Clark-Tarlac Expressway (SCTEX), at Cebu-Cordova Link Expressway (CCLEX) sa Cebu.

"Isa sa participation din ng mga mamayan ay 'yung oral history. 'Yung kwento ng mga lolo o lola (One other way residents can participate is through oral history. The stories of grandfathers or grandmothers)," Diaz added.

Truth vs myths
 MITCAO is excited about the historical facts that the book project will uncover, especially since there have always been local myths that have not been verified through research.

"Totoo bang dumaan dito si Rizal, dahil katabi lang natin ang Biñan? Talaga bang pumunta dito si Emilio Aguinaldo at may lusutan daw ang kanyang karwahe dito sa simbahan? These are oral histories na hindi babalewalain, pero hahanap tayo ng pruwera through research (Did Rizal pass by Carmona since it is just beside Biñan? Did Emilio Aguinaldo really go here and was there a tunnel in our church for his carriage?)," Diaz said.

Besides the historical figures who frequented the town, the LGU is also looking forward to discovering local heroes in the process.

"Wala pa tayong kilalang local heroes eh, 'di katulad sa Bacoar, Trece Martires (we do not know any local heroes yet, unlike Bacoar, Trece Martires)," Diaz remarked.

"Of course, before you move forward, kailangan mo ring balikan ang nakaraan (you also need to look back at the past). It is also to inspire the younger generation."

Meanwhile Paete Mayor Ronald Cosico championed health in his LGU as he wants to focus on health program during his term. "Panahon na para maging una at priority ang pondo para sa health. Nabigla tayo sa pandemya, hindi alam ang gagawin. Pero kung tayo ay handa at tututukan natin ito, hindi tayo matatakot. At sana'y ito ang binibigyan ng pansin ng ating mga kasamahang local chief executives."

He further expound that when he was councilor and then administrator of Paete LGU, they were getting capitation from PhilHealth which they used to sustain the medicines they were providing their constituents. But with the PhilHealth Konsulta, Filipinos can be assured of preventive services in the accredited RHUs in Paete. He ended his message with a call on PhilHealth's support to help them explain the program to their constituents.

Likewise, Panukulan, Quezon Mayor Alfred Rigor Mitra stressed out that health is a priority program in their LGU. He thanked PhilHealth for its program underlining his hope for a healthy Quezon, since as he said, "kapag maganda ang kalusugan, productive ang lahat".
