MPCALA Holdings Inc. (MHI), concessionaire of the Cavite-Laguna Expressway (CALAX) prides itself not only on the green and highly advanced features of its toll road but also on its continuous attempt at elevating its customer experience.

Aside from the convenience of traveling, CALAX has always been very keen on prioritizing its motorist safety — promoting road safety among stakeholders thru various channels and extending roadside assistance services, shaping it to be the most 'motorist-friendly' expressway in the country. Since it opened in October 2019, there is zero fatality from road crash at CALAX.

MHI continues to invest in various traffic management technologies to help ensure smooth and safe travel for its motorists. This includes barrierless entry, Automatic License Plate Recognition at all toll lanes, variable message sign (VMS) that flashes traffic updates and motorists' advisories along the expressway; a CALAX • 4

New AFP chief's thrust

There is no room for mediocre service here." New Chief of Staff Lt. Gen. Bartolome Vicente Bacarro stressed this in his speech at the Armed Forces of the Philippines change of command ceremony on Aug. 8, 2022, formalizing his assumption of the top military post.

He likewise underscored the importance of time. "Time wasted is opportunity lost," he said.

By emphasizing these, expect Bacarro to hit the ground running and the men in uniform of the AFP to render the highest form of service possible for the country.

Bacarro's statement is a stern reminder to the military to perform exceptionally well at all times, especially that he is focused on ending the communist insurgency, something his predecessors failed to achieve.

"We will be unyielding in ending the insurgency that has plagued our people and fueled poverty in the various sectors of our society," Bacarro said in his speech, highlighting one of his thrusts under his six-pronged vision for the AFP, dubbed "UNITY" – using President Marcos' presidential campaign slogan as acronym.

He vowed that the pursuit of terrorist groups, which he said have "disrupted the normal and peaceful lives of our fellow Filipinos in affected areas," will continue under his watch.

Bacarro's vision of UNITY stands for "Unparalleled professionalism, Noble utilization of resources, Invigorating capability development, Tenacity in sustaining gains, and Yearning for service excellence." It pertains to the preservation of the military's high trust and approval ratings from the public, efficient and intelligent use of resources amid the Covid-19 pandemic, pursuing the third phase of the modernization program which will begin in 2023, putting premium on the sustained commitment of the military to end the communist insurgency, terrorism, and other security campaigns, and playing a key role in the fight against Covid-19 pandemic.

These are gargantuan tasks for the AFP – ending communist insurgency and terrorism, in particular. However, these are attainable with unequivocal support of the administration and the uncompromising commitment of the men in uniform. As Bacarro emphasized, there is no room for mediocre service in the AFP.

While the promise to end communist insurgency has been echoed administration after administration, the underground movement still thrives today. This only underscores the daunting task ahead for Bacarro and his men.

Under the Duterte administration, the Armed Forces claimed to have made inroads in the battle against insurgency.

"[As] far as the military is concerned, we have achieved significant gains in the conduct of military operations against the threat. I'm referring to the armed threat [posed by the NPAs], [we reduced them by] almost 74 percent. There used to be 89 guerrilla fronts when President [Rodrigo] Duterte assumed office in 2016, but as of 30 June this year they were reduced to 23," then AFP acting spokesman Col. Medel Aguilar said in a press briefing last month.

The military also placed the current NPA strength to around 2,700 as of June this year, from close to 30,000 in the 1980s.

With a fixed term of three years under the new law, Bacarro will have the luxury of time to fine-tune and implement his strategy against communist insurgency.

Will the AFP finally end the communist insurgency? Will Bacarro succeed where his predecessors failed? Only time will tell.

Meantime, we will closely watch how this pans out and hope that the campaign will be executed with due process of law in mind and will be bloodless, as well.

Off to alternates

It took some time to realize that youths from Generation Z (Gen Z), particularly those born before 2003, had matured sufficiently to be considered adults.

Now that Back-to-School has begun, one could say that the booming of popular memes on the screens of your mobile phones and feeds from various social media platforms refers to how your first day would normally start; common Filipino phrases used in various places; and the much-anticipated "You know you're from this to that & an Adult" phrases are something that immediately stirs your tickle.

Nonetheless, those youths may hardly say that things are now going different because there's no more to getting baby-fed by our parents---they can finally be free (for some) in their endeavors and is, of legal age. I, myself, am just a fresh mover in a dormitory, and being here for almost three days, I have realized to be more efficient and must save up to the extremist that I can because it is far different in handling your personal and private life from your customized place to real place.

From contemplating whether I should get my planner, systematically scheduling your dates for laundry, groceries, and fixing your budget, room cleaning is just as hectic and therapeutic (I would say!) for someone ready to live alone and be in full-independent mode. Firstly, you know you're an adult when you start to get all of your government ID's intact in one wallet because it is a must and I bet we all fancy not missing out on all of the government, business, and other transaction establishments availing promos, discounts, vouchers, and updates.

Secondly, you know you're already an adult when you prefer to shop in home stores rather than fashion; comfortable clothes over lavish and stylish ones; and that "Body Clock." And of course, we will never forget that you know you're an adult when you're starting to question 'what ifs' in life and collecting such books you will never read after. Because to experience things like this is just somewhat a conclusion to all of the people who remarkably lived alone and silently survived.

For individuals, now know the collective struggles to how busily living independently. Adulting, you know, is not that hard. It just becomes difficult when we're trying to find our true selves while dealing with all of the emerging adulthood that is unfolding at the same time, and we dismiss it as bad luck or a truly hectic and problematic phase.

You'll adjust to things happening quickly when you know you're manageable enough to complete tasks and errands based on your timetable or how restrained you are to be organized.

It has become a fact of life to become who we are and look at how far we've come and praise us through navigating all of our struggles into a definite success. And that is the art and beauty of independence.

Being able to live alone and having yourself surviving in your own wave and escaping from the madness of the world. You were having the ability to care and look out for yourself financially, emotionally, and physically which most people wouldn't do.

In time, you only have you to fall back on, so being able to handle things on your own is vital. It all comes down to being comfortable who you are and what you believe in. Knowing that you have oversight on your own life and choices is extremely empowering.

Listening to your inner voice rather than the berating opinions of others is far more beneficial. Consider what is in your best interests and select that option. One of the most worthwhile goals we can set for ourselves is to become self-sufficient.

And for some reason, as what Ashley Fern said, "It is the big choices we make that set our direction. It is the smallest choices we make that get us to the destination." And it is, symptoms persist, then welcome to the real world! To the next alternate, off you go!

weigh-in-motion sensor that allows automatic detection of overloaded vehicles; and speed-detection cameras for the apprehension of over-speeding vehicles that will also be eventually used for contactless apprehension soon.

For roadside assistance, motorists can easily connect to its traffic control room with just a press of a button through its emergency call boxes strategically located along the expressway. These emergency call boxes have a built-in loudspeaker, camera, and hearing aids designed for the hearing impaired.

Aside from the call boxes, motorists can also opt to call for assistance using CALAX 24/7 hotline 1-35000 or via the MPT DriveHub app. Digital customer service agents are also made available via Facebook Messenger and CALAX website. All these channels connect the customers to CALAX Traffic Operations Center.

Just this year alone, CALAX' patrol crew has successfully attended to a total of 634 motorist assistance requests along the expressway. The recorded average response time for attending to traffic incidents is 15 minutes. It led to the team garnering numerous commendations from some of the assisted motorists for its quick and efficient response.

"In CALAX, the safety of our travelers is on top of our minds. While we assure the quality of our road and our readiness to assist, some vehicular breakdowns are beyond control but most of them are preventable. We continue to remind our motorists to practice checking BLOWBAGETS before traveling and through this become our road safety partners," said Mr. Raul L. Ignacio, President and General Manager of MPCALA Holdings Inc.

BLOWBAGETS, a handy mnemonic popularized by the PNP-Highway Patrol Group, is an effective car checklist reminder before hitting the road to prevent vehicular accidents and breakdowns. It stands for battery, lights, oil, water, brakes, air pressure, gas, engine, tires, and self.

CALAX is a 45-kilometer high-speed road network connecting the two provinces of Cavite and Laguna, targeting to serve around 45,000 motorists upon its completion. As of today, CALAX operates from Binan, Laguna up to the east of Silang, Cavite. It is set to be fully completed by 2023.

MPCALA Holdings Inc. is a subsidiary of Metro Pacific Tollways Corporation (MPTC), the biggest toll road developer and operator in the country. Aside from CALAX, MPTC's domestic portfolio includes the concessions for the Manila-Cavite Toll Expressway (CAVITE), the North Luzon Expressway (NLEX), the NLEX Connector Road, the Subic-Clark-Tarlac Expressway (SCTEX), and the Cebu-Cordova Link Expressway (CCLEX) in C e b u . One of the main benefits of being an ISO/IEC 17025:2015-accredited is that the laboratory will gain international recognition for its commitment to quality, competency, and reliable results. It is an objective way to assure the customers that the laboratory has the technical competence to provide reliable and accurate test results. This serves as an unbiased guarantee that the lab is performing at its highest level. It demonstrates that the laboratory ensures that the required quality levels and the satisfaction of the customers' needs are met.

RSTL has successfully transitioned from ISO/IEC

17025:2005 to the 2017 version in 2021. The International Laboratory Accreditation Cooperation (ILAC) is an organization promoting international arrangements between member accreditation bodies based on peer evaluation and mutual acceptance to develop and harmonize laboratory and inspection body accreditation practices and to fully implement this new standard from the date of its publication. At the end of the transition period, laboratories not accredited to the ISO/IEC 17025:2017 will not be allowed to issue endorsed test reports and will not be recognized under the ILAC MRA terms.

The RSTL offers analytical testing services for water, wastewater, foods, feeds, and others such as fertilizer and hand sanitizers through its laboratory units: Chemical Laboratory (Chem Lab), Halal Verification Laboratory (HVL), and Microbiological Laboratory (Micro Lab). The Chem Lab and the HVL, operated by three registered chemists and four registered chemical technicians, offer physico-chemical testing on food, water, and other matrices and shelf-life testing of food. The Micro Lab is operated by a food technologist, a registered microbiologist, and a biologist, and offers microbiological testing for food and water. ## LHIO Gumaca, Patuloy ang Pakikipag-ugnayan para sa PhilHealth Konsulta

Sunod-sunod ang mga naging aktibidad na isinagawa ng Gumaca LHIO upang makapagbigay impormasyon kaugnay sa implementasyon ng Universal Health Care, partikular sa PhilHealth Konsulta.

Courtesy call kay Mayor Jose V. Saavedra at MHO Milagros Simeon, v M.D. ng LGU Plaridel ni LHIO Head Annalisa Astilla at Ms. Maritess Aguilan.

Sa ilalim ng Universal Health Care, ang PhilHealth ay dapat na magpatupad ng isang primary care benefit para sa lahat ng Filipino. Kaya't noong maisabatas ang Universal Health Care (UHC), isa ang primary care sa mga isinulong nito upang mabigyan ang bawat Filipino ng maayos at sapat na pangangalaga sa kalusugan.

Ang Konsulta Package o Konsultasyong Sulit at Tama ay benepisyo na magbibigay-daan sa mandato ng UHC Law na bigyan ang lahat ng Filipino ng primary health care sa pamamagitan ng pagbibigay ng serbisyong medikal gaya ng konsultasyon sa duktore regular na pagpapatingin at pagsusuri, mga laboratoryo, at mga gamot para sa ilang sakit.

Kaya naman masusi ang ginagawang pakikipag-ugnayan ng PhilHealth sa mga local government units at pasilidad na maaaring magpa-accredit bilang Konsulta provider. Kamakailan lamang ay isinagawa ng Gumaca LHIO ang magkakahiwalay na pakikipag-pulong kina re-elected Gumaca Mayor Webster D. Letargo, Atimonan Mayor Engr. Rustico Joven U. Mendoza at Plaridel Mayor Jose V. Saavedra.

Inilatag ng Gumaca LHIO, sa pangunguna ni LHIO Head Annalisa Astilla, ang polisiya ukol sa PhilHealth Konsulta at kung paano ito mas makatutulong sa mamamayan. Tinuruan din ang keypoint officers ng RHU ng proseso sa paggamit ng system para sa PhilHealth Konsulta, ang eKonsulta.

Isa rin sa layunin ng pulong ang pagpapatingin ng kampanya sa pagpapatala ng miyembro sa kanilang napiling Konsulta provider. Kaugnay nito, hinikayat ng tanggapan ang mga kawani ng mga nabanggit na LGUs na magparehistro sa PhilHealth Konsulta. Isinagawa rin sa LGU Guinayangan ang oryentasyon ng mga empleyado ng LGU, Office of the Senior Citizen, Barangay Health Workers, Municipal Links at mga residente ng Guinayangan ukol sa proseso sa Konsulta registration at ang mga nakapaloob na benepisyo dito.

Binisita rin nina LHIO Head Annalisa P. Astilla at Ferlo Talisic si newly elected 4th District Representative Atty. Keith Micah D. Tan upang ihain ang mga bagong programa ng PhilHealth na tiyak na makatutulong sa usapang pangkalusugan ng mga mamamayan ng lalawigan ng Quezon. Positibo ang naging talakayan at usapin nila patungkol sa health services at sinisigurado nila ang magandang ugnayan.

Dinalaw rin ng LHIO ang Guinayangan Medicare Hospital at RAKKK Prophet Medical Center para mag-update sa status ng implementasyon ng Konsulta sa kanilang pasilidad at mas mapalawak ang pagpapatala ng mga miyembro para sa pag-avail ng PhilHealth KonSulTa package. Bukod dito, binisita rin ng Gumaca LHIO ang Parent Leaders ng Atimonan, Quezon upang magrehistro ng mga members at dependents sa PhilHealth KonSulTa at sa Dona Marta Hospital upang magbigay ng assistance ukol sa KonSulTa Accreditation.

Dahil unti-unti nang bumalik ang normal na transaksyon sa mga tanggapan, nagsagawa ang Gumaca LHIO ng limited Face-to-Face Employer's Forum kasama ang Government Sector mula sa iba't ibang Barangay ng Perez, Quezon patungkol sa pagtutuloy ng pagtaas ng premium payment sa taong 2022. Bilang bahagi na rin ng pagpapalawig ng KonSulTa ay ipinaliwanag din dito ang mga benepisyoong maaaring matanggap nila at ng kanilang dependents sa KonSulTa Program.

Gayundin, dumalo sa Buntis Congress ng LGU Lopez ang Gumaca LHIO kung saan nagkaroon ng "Mass KonSulTa Registration" sa mga Barangay Nutrition Scholars, BHW, Senior Citizens at iba pang miyembro na isinagawa sa covered court ng LGU Lopez, Quezon. Dumalo rin ang LHIO sa isinagawang Public Employment Service Office (PESO) ng LGU Atimonan para sa kanilang Mobile Services na may temang "Serbisyong Totoo para sa Tao" na isa ring aktibidad para sa selebrasyon ng kanilang local town fiesta.
